Additional Comments:

The E60 M5 is a masterpiece. Its Chris Bangle design was to die for. It was a futuristic yet elegant shape, mainly down to the lights fading into the lines of smoothed off bodywork. If you parked the E60 5 series next to any A6 or E-Class of the time, it would be like parking the Space Shuttle next to the Wright brother's aeroplane. The E60 M5 is one of the generations greats. Its recipe of new-age design and ferocious F1 technology made for a beautifully bonkers final product.
