Additional Comments:

Fire Orange, 450hp and 70kg lighter than the standard M3, the E92 M3 GTS was a racing car for the road. The GTS found the perfect ratio between road and racing car. It was stiff, but not so stiff that your teeth would fall out over a speedbump. The cabin was stripped back, but it still had cupholders and an optional radio. But it came alive on track and reminded you that M stood for “Motorsport”.
